

Language Arts Mission Statement (Writing Spelling and English)

To help ensure that students become life long independent and interdependent learners. Students will use language, spelling, and writing to communicate, to stimulate the imagination, and to construct meaning.