Agriculture Local Standards

The following additional standard that the Agriculture Department teaches and require of our students in their respective courses.

Proficiency in the use of computers to do research and complete projects using Microsoft office .